Kinsale Apr.ᵉ 17.ᵗʰ 1774.

Dear Dʳ.

Thanks to you for your Letter which I received on my Arrival here. Tho' I wrote by the last Post to my Father, & have nothing to say yet I could not help setting down just to inform you that we are still here, nor have we as yet got any Intelligence of the Transports. However as the Wind is fair, We have reason to expect them every Hour. Our Orders with regard to our Encamping at Boston, you know in London full as well if not better than we do. As I find we are to have eight Regᵗˢ there, I fancy Severity is intended. Surely the People of Boston are not Mad enough to think of opposing us. Headrick & Semper will I hope set things in their Quarter to rights, & Gen.ˡ Gage is the proper Man to do it. Adieu my Dear Dʳ. & be assured Sam.

Your sincere Friend

Percy
